

Pie-Eyed

Grandma said she'd make her handmade cherry pie if you can figure out this problem: Given three bowls and 12 cherries, can you arrange the fruit so that there are an odd number of cherries in each bowl? Oh, and each bowl must contain more than three cherries.

Answer: Put five cherries in one bowl, five cherries in another, and put one of those inside the third bowl, which holds two cherries.