

Am I ready to share my project?

1. Is my prototype completed?

- a. Is my prototype as accurate as I can make it?
- b. Is my prototype neat and attractive?
- c. Did I use creativity in making it economically?
- d. Is it different than anything else I have seen?

2. Is my display board complete?

- a. Is my title neat and easy to read?
- b. Is my title original, eye appealing and easily read?
- c. Is my purpose written in complete sentences with correct spelling to tell why I am creating this product?
- d. Is the problem written in complete sentences with correct spelling to tell about the problem that I am trying to solve with this product?
- e. Have I listed all the steps in my procedure?
- f. Are my results based on actual trials or surveys?
- g. Do my conclusions relate back to the purpose and problem?

3. Is my log or journal complete with all the entries about my work?

- a. Is the cover attractive?
- b. Did I have those that helped me initial those entries?

4. Have I done enough research to make sure this is an original idea?

5. Have I done enough research to be able to answer questions others might ask?

Circle One (Yes, No, Needs Improvement)

Y	N	NI
Y	N	NI
Y	N	NI
Y	N	NI

Y	N	NI
Y	N	NI
Y	N	NI

Y	N	NI
---	---	----

Y	N	NI
Y	N	NI
Y	N	NI

Y	N	NI
Y	N	NI

Y	N	NI
---	---	----

Y	N	NI
---	---	----

Answer the following questions with complete sentences:

Is this project an example of my best work?

What could I have done better or differently to make the solution to this problem even more successful?

What is the most important thing I learned while completing this project?
