Kylee Altendorf to Display Innovention During the Bright Ideas Showcase and Contest Held at the ND State Fair

Bismarck, ND (July 13, 2010) – Kylee Altendorf, an up and coming young entrepreneur from Edison Elementary School in Minot, ND, will be showcasing her innovention, The See S'more (Hot Dog and S'more Roaster), at the Marketplace for Kids Bright Ideas Showcase and Contest at the ND State Fair. The Bright Ideas Showcase and Contest is a statewide competition put on by Marketplace for Kids in conjunction with KX/Co-op Day at the ND State Fair in Minot.

You can visit Kylee and view The See S'more from 12:30-2:00 p.m. on Wednesday, July 28, in the State Fair Center.

The Bright Ideas Showcase and Contest is an extension of Marketplace for Kids and a wonderful opportunity for young entrepreneurs. It is a one-day competition where students will have time to display their innoventions, provide a short presentation to judges, receive feedback, and compete to win prizes. Prize categories include business ideas, inventions and special awards for innovation in energy, agriculture, and technology.

Marketplace for Kids has been providing youth entrepreneurship education throughout the state of North Dakota for over 15 years. Marketplace for Kids believes in the innovation and ideas of these emerging young entrepreneurs and will continue to provide quality education and enrichment opportunities well into the future.
